

WINTER

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE (OUR) HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Discover a holiday getaway your groups will love. The holidays are a time for nostalgia, for discovering new traditions, shopping for the perfect gift, and creating new memories!

- ROBERSON MUSEUM AND SCIENCE CENTER presents their annual “Home for the Holidays” exhibit. The exhibit features an enchanting “International Christmas Tree Forest” which explores holiday traditions throughout the world, a Winter Sky show in the Planetarium, American Flyer trains, and 1900’s traditions in the opulently decorated mansion. (Thanksgiving through New Years)
- THE HANUKKAH HOUSE MUSEUM features Jewish traditions, history, decorations, and more. The museum is located at Temple Concord.
- THE WINDY HILL CANDLE FACTORY & CANDYLAND enhances their experience by adding special scents for the holidays. In the gift shop, you are sure to find unique items to complete your shopping list, or to indulge yourself!
- Check out some sporting action and catch a Binghamton Senators hockey game at the Floyd L. Maines Veterans Memorial Arena!
- Join in the excitement at a First Friday Art Walk and see art of all shapes and sizes, see the lights on the carousels, or grab dinner at a fabulous restaurant!
