Walkway Over the Hudson, Poughkeepsie

A bird's-eye view of the majestic Hudson River, one of America's Heritage Rivers, is yours to enjoy from the world's longest elevated pedestrian bridge. From Poughkeepsie to Highland, it spans 6,767 feet – about 1.25 miles – across the Hudson. For walkers, runners, bicyclists, and rollerbladers, it provides a seamless connection to 27 miles of rail trails and riverfront parks on either side. <https://www.walkway.org/>

Kayaking on the Hudson in Beacon, Hyde Park or Staatsburgh

Take to the river in a rented kayak or join in one of many guided tours! Connect with Mountain Tops Outdoors, the official kayak outfitter at Scenic Hudson's Long Dock Park in Beacon or in Hyde Park, visit The River Connection. Historic Mills Norrie State Park in Staatsburgh, is home to the Norrie Point Paddlesport Center.

Old Rhinebeck Aerodrome, Rhinebeck

This is more than just a museum housing one of the world's largest collections of World War I and Golden Age aircraft and antique automobiles. It's a stage for amazing airshows, and a place where you can don a helmet and goggles for a ride over the Hudson River in the open cockpit of a 1929 New Standard D-25.

Dinner in the Village of Rhinebeck

You could spend hours exploring this sophisticated, four-corners town, thanks to a wealth of shops, restaurants, art galleries and theaters. More than 40 specialty shops and 20 eateries are nestled in and around the historic, tree-lined village streets. Park along Montgomery Row, and be sure to hit Market, Garden, and Mill streets as well. <http://enjoyrhinebeck.com>. For dinner, find out how local ingredients are used in the "Hudson Valley Mediterranean" menu at Gigi Trattoria <http://www.gigihudsonvalley.com/> or enjoy a special meal accompanied by a New York State craft beer at award winning Terrapin.
