

Summer in the Sullivan Catskills

The hills of the Catskills is filled with music and performing arts

Bethel Woods Center for the Arts

Located 90 miles from New York City at the site of the 1969 Woodstock festival in Bethel, NY, the lush 800-acre campus includes a Pavilion Stage amphitheater with seating for 15,000 and an intimate 440-seat indoor Event Gallery. <http://www.bethelwoodscenter.org/>

Forestburgh Playhouse

Founded in 1947, the Forestburgh Playhouse is the oldest continuously operating professional summer theatre in New York State. The Playhouse employs professional actors, often with Broadway or other major credits, as well as a company of non-union professionals who earn credit toward their own eventual membership in the Actors' Equity Association. <http://www.fbplayhouse.org/>

Delaware Valley Arts Alliance

Delaware Valley Arts Alliance, founded in 1976, serves as Arts Council for Sullivan County, New York. The Arts Alliance presents programs in the visual, performing, literary, and media arts and serves a county- and valley-wide constituency of artists, arts groups and the general public.
