

Waterfalls & Wine

a true Finger Lakes experience

Hidden waterfalls, unique views, unexpected beauty. Nestled in the heart of the Finger Lakes region of New York State, these are things you'll discover when visiting Ithaca. You pack comfy shoes and a keen sense of curiosity, and we'll show you the way.

- Tour extensive gardens and arboretum and experience living showcases of botanical diversity.
- Showcasing a panoramic view of Ithaca and Cayuga Lake, this university art museum offers a collection spanning six millennia and encompasses most world cultures.
- Take a photo at a 150ft waterfall, right in the heart of the city. At 175ft wide, the falls are one of the region's mightiest.
- Enjoy a unique dining and shopping experience at one of the few surviving pedestrian malls left in the U.S. Experience the centerpiece of a Nationally Registered Historic District as you browse the area's most diverse shopping and eclectic dining, from upscale bistros to casual cafés.
- Revel in the sound of roaring waters descending in a series of plunging cascades and rapids that converge into a beautiful, swimmable basin.
- Enhance your appreciation and knowledge of birds at one of the world's leading Labs of Ornithology. Birding is best enjoyed with a group!
- Take in extraordinary views while tasting your way through the nation's first organized wine trail. Sample award-winning wine, beer, hard cider and spirits along the way.
- Meet the "kidds" at a working farm, and see how high quality goat cheese is made.
- Visit an expansive hard cider tasting room that is located on a sprawling organic farm.
- Visit a park that is a wonder for the senses. Tour an old mill with a park naturalist and learn how the gorges were formed.
- Wander through one of the largest herb and perennial farms in Central New York before enjoying a home cooked meal in their café.
- Meander the grounds of a tranquil Victorian farm and gardens overlooking Cayuga Lake. The 65-acre farm includes a restored farmhouse, a duck pond, a Gothic revival Chicken Palace aviary, and Scottish Highland cattle. Browse world renowned tableware, home furnishings, and more at the gift shop.
- Enjoy a fun evening of bowling and delicious farm-to-table dining at one of the area's newest dining hotspots.
